OUR WORK

2016 Fruits of God's Work

I am the eldest among four siblings. I became a parent to my siblings at an early age because my mother and father were drunkards who gave us nothing to eat. Because of this, I was forced into manual labor just to earn a little for food—and rent for the broken-down wooden structure we called home. But then, in 2008, a miracle happened! I got taken in with all my siblings to start school at God Cares. Taken care of by Buyamba, we now have a place to stay, we don't miss a meal and above all, we now have dreams for a better future.

It was always my dream to become a teacher. But it was a dream that I never thought would happen, because my mom was mentally ill up until her death and my dad, well I never even knew who he was. So I was an orphan. Then, in 2006, I joined God Cares School. Since that time, there's never been one day where I felt like an outcast. How can you when you've been adopted into a family like Buyamba? Oh my Lord, it gets even better! In 2015, I graduated with a Bachelors of Arts in Education and I'm now a teacher at God Cares High School. I'm living my dream—while serving as a living testimony to my students that “with God nothing is impossible!” For the rest of my life, I will always glorify God for Buyamba and Pastor Dongo.

OUR PLANS

Buyamba Uganda plans to take more children off the streets...one child at a time.

Our plan is to increase our sponsorship to 2,000 children, along with infrastructure to support the student and staff population, taking in more orphaned and needy children. Our vision is to empower them as the next generation to impact Uganda for Christ.

Widening Our Reach & Impact

Our goal is to interface with new churches and schools, while maintaining and cultivating continued relationship with current partner churches and organizations, inviting them to come alongside Buyamba to support God Cares Schools.

Building Campaigns

Our goal is to complete the construction of the next building on God Cares High School campus, the Bethuel Dongo Assembly Hall. Then, we will start the construction of the dorms at GCHS to house the growing population of children graduating from the God Cares Primary School. Next, we will begin the construction of Buyamba's third school, God Cares East in Jinja.
